

Jazz & Bouzouki !!

A Musical Event Celebrating
New Orleans' Tricentennial, the Birth of New Orleans Jazz and the Contributions of Greek Immigrants Presented by the Jazz Museum and Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral Archives Committee

September 29, 2018 6:00—9:00 p.m. $25

Limited Seating!

Purchase now on <https://www.eventbrite.com/>

*New Orleans Jazz Will Converge with Greek Folk Music.
Celebrated New Orleans Musicians will perform the music of 1920s
New Orleans jazzman, Ellis Stratakos, son of a Greek immigrant.
They will impart their New Orleans vibe and beat
to the music of the early Greek immigrants.*

Ticket will cover:

- ~ Concert of early New Orleans jazz and Greek traditional melodies
- ~ Presentation on the early Greek settlement in New Orleans
- ~ Greek Mezedakia (hors d'oeuvres) & cash bar
- ~ Silent auction to support Philoptochos program helping families in crisis
- ~ Exhibition of Holy Trinity artifacts
- ~ Museum will be open for viewing.

The following accomplished New Orleans musicians will perform for this unique concert:

John Trigas, Greek musician specializing in the clarinet and bouzouki, curated the musical selections and will direct the concert.

Piano: Tom Worrell

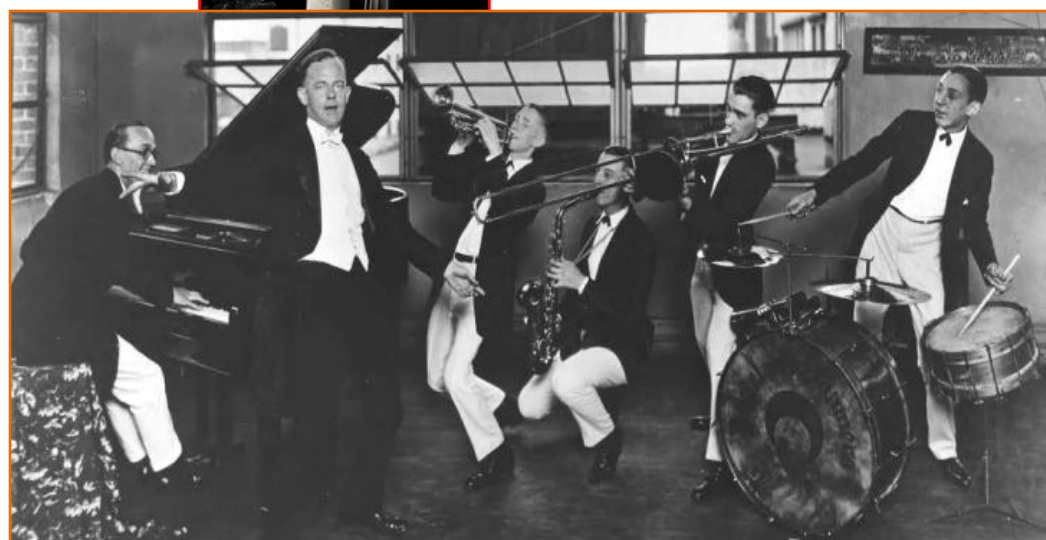

Trombone: Delfeayo Marsalis

Bass: Paul Macres

Drums: Doug Garrison

Musicians will perform the music of the 1920s
Ellis Stratakos
Orchestra on the
Jung Hotel Roof

Call 504-780-9165 for more information. Note there is no museum parking. Please use street parking and parking garages. Map for the Jazz Museum.