Another Busy Season in Our Community

by Father George Wilson

All Orthodox faithful recently celebrated the most central and premiere feast of our Holy Orthodox Christian Church—Pascha or Easter, the celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord and God Jesus Christ. I hope that you had the opportunity to experience many of the uplifting services of the Church, and I pray that by doing so, it was a season of spiritual growth for you.

At the end of the weeklong celebration of Bright Week, parishioners will see the completion of the Sunday Church School program, as well as the Greek education classes, with our graduation programs. Spring is always a busy time for our Cathedral community as we experience the Paschal season and the Pentecostarion for fifty more days. Combined with the Ecclesiastical festivities in May, we also enjoy Mother’s Day on the second Sunday and continued preparations for the annual Greek Festival at the end of the month.

Also, this year we were asked by His Eminence Metropolitan Alexios to host the Metropolis Saint John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival. The event will take place during Mother’s Day weekend—May 10-12. Our community will welcome the senior and junior finalists from each of the seven Metropolis Conferences as they participate in this wonderful Archdiocesan program, now in its 36th year, on Saturday morning and afternoon in the Cathedral. The entire Cathedral family is invited to attend this event to help support and encourage speakers from every corner of the Atlanta Metropolis. We are especially pleased that two young ladies from Holy Trinity will be participating as the two junior finalists from the Western Conference - District Oratorical Festival. They are Stella Vatakis and Maria Vennis.

His Eminence Metropolitan Alexios will be in attendance at the Oratorical Festival and the various extra events associated with the festival including a river cruise on the Mississippi River aboard the Creole Queen riverboat. There is still room on the Creole Queen for a Jazz Dinner Cruise at a discounted rate, if you can attend. Please contact Presvytera Harriet at 859-312-2795 for details and to make a reservation.

His Eminence will also officiate at a Hierarchal Liturgy on Sunday, May 12, which is Mother’s Day. I hope that you will join us for this special and exciting weekend.

CHRIST IS RISEN! ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ ΑΝΕΣΘΗ!
SPRING CLEANING ON CATHEDRAL GROUNDS

Over the course of several days in early April, Dimitri Vatakis pressure washed the walkways, driveways, and parking areas throughout the entire Cathedral grounds. You may need to wear your sunglasses when approaching the parking lots since the surfaces are so clean and bright. Moreover, he pruned shrubs and weeded the flower beds prior to placing mountains of fresh pine straw mulch over the surfaces.

Dimitri also planted several annuals to add color to the surroundings. Despina and Stavros Savvaides contributed to the mix by donating and planting additional spring flowers in the courtyard and the breezeway areas. Many, many thanks are extended to the Savvaides family for bringing so much colorful cheer to the Cathedral grounds.

Please note that the Pascha azaleas that adorned the solea during the Resurrection Service will remain for a few weeks before Dimitri plants them in the flower beds. The hydrangea plants that flanked the foot of the Holy Cross on Holy Thursday also will be planted in the garden. Thank you to all of the donors that supported these purchases.

Évêque Maxime de Mélitène
Métropole Grecque Orthodoxe
7, rue Georges Bizet
75116 Paris, FRANCE

Dear Fr. George, Dear Steven,
Brothers and sisters in Christ,

I am very excited to receive your congratulatory letter on my election as Bishop of Melitene by the Ecumenical Patriarchate. My connection with the Church of Holy Trinity in New Orleans is very strong since the time I served as your priest, with the blessings and support of His Eminence Metropolitan Alexios of Atlanta. During that time I saw the flame of faith in your hearts, your efforts for the community, and your love for the Church of Christ. You are part of a historical Greek Orthodox Cathedral with many activities and a great contribution to the local community. I feel very proud and blessed that Jesus sent me there to serve His Church; I always remember you and keep you in my prayers.

Thank you very much for your gift and the invitation to visit Holy Trinity. I hope I’ll be able to be with you very soon.

Please convey my blessings to all members of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Community of New Orleans.

I wish Kalo Pascha to all of you!

In Christ,

Paris, April 2, 2019

† Bishop Maximos of Melitene

Congratulations to Stella and Maria on their achievement and good luck to each in the next round.
AHEPA AND DAUGHTERS OF PENELlope CELEBRATE PALM SUNDAY

PALM SUNDAY LUNCHEON—The New Orleans AHEPA and Daughters of Penelope Chapters thank the entire Holy Trinity Community for its contribution toward the successful Annual Palm Sunday Luncheon. Congratulations are offered to icon drawing recipients Pam and Gus Michailakis, and appreciation is extended to the wonderful cooks that prepared a delicious meal, to Luncheon Chairman Nick Bouzon that planned the event and obtained the beautiful icon from Mt. Athos, and to everyone that helped with the preparations. Proceeds from the luncheon will assist AHEPA and Daughters support philanthropic projects during the year including the Holy Trinity Philoptochos Thanksgiving Basket and Angel Tree, AHEPA K-9 for Warriors, scholarships for high school and college students, Cooley's Anemia, assistance to Greece, and other projects. Donations to Cooley's Anemia can be placed in the donation cans in the Hellenic Cultural Center or given to an AHEPA officer. Efforts are underway to reactivate the local Sons of Pericles and Maids of Athena chapters. Those interested in joining AHEPA or the Daughters of Penelope and helping with these programs are invited to membership by contacting one of the officers.

PHILOPTOCHOS

Philoptochos members stay extremely busy during the months of April and May as they continue their work on various projects, prepare for Easter, and help with Greek Festival preparations.

HOTEL HOPE—Billie Andersson and Faith Kyame prepared a delicious meal with homemade quiches that were served for dinner to the families at Hotel Hope, a facility which houses homeless women and children and helps them to be productive citizens.

MEMBERSHIP MEETING—A membership meeting was held on April 6 with Vice President Cornelia Koniditsiotis presiding in the absence of President Cathy Vial. Many topics were discussed. Members voted to make additional donations: $1,000 to Holy Cross-Hellenic College as a Lenten donation and $100 to Orthodox Prison Project. Board members for 2019-2020 were elected. After the meeting, Father George narrated a very interesting and moving video of a service held for a young lady becoming a nun. Maria Anastasiou, Koula Vennis, and Georgia Zervoudis graciously served as meeting hostesses. They prepared an array of wonderful dishes and desserts.

NEXT MEETING—There will be no meeting in May due to Greek Festival preparations. However, Philoptochos members will meet on Saturday, June 8, at 10:30 am. A board meeting will precede it at 10:00 am.

MOTHER'S DAY—Best wishes are extended to all mothers. Philoptochos members hope that the day is beautiful for everyone and that happiness continues for each throughout the year!

LENTEN COFFEE RECEPTION—On Friday, April 12, after the Akathist Hymn, Philoptochos sponsored a Lenten Coffee Reception. Helen Malachias chaired the event with her committee of Denise Ammons, Angie Kringas, and other chapter members. An evening of camaraderie and friendship was enjoyed by all.

PENTECOST RECEPTION

Looking ahead to Pentecost, Philoptochos will host a community reception on Sunday, June 16, following church services. This annual event is held in honor of Holy Trinity Cathedral. Philoptochos invites everyone to join in the celebration.
Spring finally arrived, and Holy Trinity Greek School has been buzzing with activity, excitement, and learning. There is so much to celebrate before the end of the school year, and I would like to share with you all the relevant details.

On Sunday, March 24, Greek School students celebrated Greek Independence Day, commemorating the start of the war of Greek Independence in 1821. The gymnasium was filled with parents and guests, who were interested in Greek history and who inspired Greek School students to recite their poems with great enthusiasm. We would like to congratulate Kelly Doukakis, Ioanna Latsis, Athena Levidis, Sofia Nikolopoulou, Aggeliki Sutton, Aphrodite Sutton, Athena Sutton, Eleni Toras, and Panayiota Vatakis for their excellent performance. The audience’s attention was not fixed only on poetry recitation. A school skit performed by two amazing Pre-K students impressed all the guests. Alex Agas and Jack Levendis impersonated Theodoros Kolokotronis and a young shepherd respectively. Their passionate portrayals won much applause. Well done, Alex and Jack! The advanced students, Pantelis Frezoulis, George Ramirez, Stella Vatakis, and Maria Vennis commented on the hardships associated with life under Ottoman occupation. Anna Sher and Adam Exnicios, who teaches history at the New Orleans Military and Maritime Academy, added to their presentation by talking about the significance of Filiki Etaeria. Finally, Laoura Ferrettidi and Eleni Hellmers referred to the many Italian and American philhellenes, who contributed to the Greek War of Independence.

The event would not have been complete without music and Greek dances! Paul Macres, who is a member of Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra, performed traditional Greek songs on bass, and Evagelia Vatakis did a great job preparing students to dance and honor their cultural heritage. Also, we would like to thank Ermioni Patselikos, who decorated the gymnasium and facilitated the event. Besides, it is true that without the support of Holy Trinity PTA and the many volunteers, it would not be easy to set up a memorable event for another year.

On April 5 Holy Trinity Greek School organized a workshop in an effort to reach out to the broader community of New Orleans and to serve its mission of promoting Greek history and culture. Exactly 102 students from Metairie Park Country Day School came to the Hellenic Cultural Center to learn about ancient Greece. The theme centered on nutrition in ancient Greece with reference to the many stories depicted by the paintings on food serving and drinking vessels. The students became aware of nutritious habits that survived for centuries in Greece and had the opportunity to taste mastiha, whose use was well known in antiquity. Then, they made ancient Greek pot charms using air-dry modeling clay and tempera paint, as well as explored the photo exhibition revolving around the use of ancient Greek vessels.

I wish to thank Vickie Catsulis, who helped with the preparation of the activities, and Loukia Christakis, Dr. Cornelia Koniditsiotis, and Georgia Zervoudis, who volunteered to help on the day of the event. Please note that this endeavor would not have taken place without the cooperation and support of Parish Council President Steve Psarellis. It is my hope that this workshop was the first of many similar events to take place in the near future, provided the Greek Community of New Orleans encourages Greek School to do so.
